The fourth meeting of Light Jets Europe will feature presentations from global experts in aviation, many of whom will emphasize the utility of adding light jets to the current fleet mix in order to "right size" operations.

Captain Minkoff, President of JetQuik, LLC, will chair Day Two of the two-day event that will address topics as varied as aircraft design, datalink connectivity, aviation legal issues and funding. This year's meeting will also include a supporting exhibition and display of static aircraft.

In addition to his Chairmanship duties, Captain Minkoff will address the complexities of delivering Executive Jets around the world with particular emphasis on the Embraer Executive Jet family of Phenom 100 and 300 light jet aircraft. Alan Perry, Chairman of MIU Events remarked, "Bill Minkoff has demonstrated his leadership in the implementation of business jet aircraft. He truly understands the opportunities developing throughout the world of international aviation."

JetQuik (<http://www.jetquik.com>) and Corporate Flight Management (<http://www.flycfm.com>) operate a number of diversified aviation businesses including CFM Charter, CFMJet, multiple FBOs and Wings of Eagles Flight Schools.
